

CHINESE CALLIGRAPHY SERIES

Thursdays, May 5 to July 7
6pm - 7:30pm
Ives Think Tank

Xiaoxing Cao

(“Shyow-shing Tsow”) is from Zhejiang Province, in eastern China. Xiaoxing began learning Chinese calligraphy in art school when she was eight years old, and she received many awards and honors for her work. In 2011, Xiaoxing moved to New Haven, she created Yale Chinese painting and calligraphy group in Yale International Center, September that year and volunteering teaching weekly class there till now. The group had been invited to give 5 art exhibitions in New Haven, and leader a lots of fun events and Chinese culture festival in Yale.

For more information about YCPCG, please visit:
<http://yalecpcgroup.weebly.com/>

This course is designed for students who are interested in Chinese art and culture. Students will have the freedom to learn their own way with teacher instruction followed by individual guidance. During classes, the traditional materials - brush, ink stick, ink stone and xuan paper - will be used. This class not only introduces Chinese calligraphy skills but involves elements of Chinese culture, calligraphy history, famous Chinese artists, and their art works. Through this course, students will also be able to learn some basics of the Chinese language.

To register, please call Xia Feng at 203-946-2279.