

Looking for a good PT job ? Flexible hours?

How to Get a Job as a Tutor

Join us for a workshop at the New Haven Free Public Library

Saturday October 8th at 10:30 am at the Mitchell Branch
 37 Harrison Street New Haven (off Whalley Ave)

Or

Monday October 24th at 6pm at the Ives Main Library
 133 Elm Street New Haven (Downtown)

Have you ever thought about working as a tutor, but were not sure how to get started? There is a growing demand for tutors all subjects: English, engineering, history, math, science, and all foreign languages. Great part time work, with a flexible schedule. Bring a resume to this info session with representative from Tutor Doctor.

Workshop will be lead by Janice Williams, New Haven resident and Education Consultant with Tutor Doctor serving the Greater New Haven area. Ms. Williams has a Master's of Business Administration degree from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania. Her love of children and passion for learning motivated her to join to the National US Tutor Doctor Franchisee team in 2009.

Trusted In-Home Tutoring

NEW HAVEN FREE PUBLIC LIBRARY MITCHELL BRANCH LIBRARY

37 Harrison Street New Haven CT 06515 203-946-8117 www.nhfpl.org