

CELEBRATE NEW HAVEN

Reception

Wednesday, June 28, 5:30 - 7:30PM

Ives Main Library, Performance Area

The New Haven Free Public Library and Connecticut artist Rashmi teamed up for Celebrate New Haven: A Collaborative City-Wide Photo Collage, a photo collage created by the New Haven community at all five library locations. Participants submitted photographs of the City of New Haven and its neighborhoods, which were used as elements in ten large co-created murals. Each library created two collage panels; one to remain on view at the local library and the other to be part of a six-panel installation at the Ives Main Library, representing the New Haven Free Public Library system and its neighborhoods.

Join us for the revealing of all ten murals, refreshments, and remarks from Mayor Toni Harp, City Librarian and Director Martha Brogan, and local artist Rashmi!

Rashmi is a professional artist with a fine arts degree from Bombay, India. Her work reflects her extensive travels through photo collages, ink drawings, 3D sculptures and ceramics. Her work has been exhibited and purchased by private collectors in USA, India, and Europe.

Since immigrating to Connecticut in 1991, Rashmi has involved herself in the local art community and has exhibited her work across Connecticut and New York. Rashmi has received a visual arts fellowship and grants from the CT Office of the Arts.
