Sarah Prager is the author of the new book Queer, There, and Everywhere: 23 People Who Changed the World. Sarah has dedicated the last four years to making LGBTQ history engaging and accessible for youth. This career has taken her to the White House, universities and the offices of companies like Google and Twitter. Sarah lives in Wallingford with her wife and daughter.

World history has been made by countless lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer individuals—and you’ve never heard of many of them. Sarah delves deep into the lives of 23 people who fought, created, and loved on their own terms. From high-profile figures like Abraham Lincoln and Eleanor Roosevelt to the trailblazing gender-ambiguous Queen of Sweden. These astonishing true stories uncover a rich queer heritage that encompasses every culture, in every era.
