

September 2017

ADULT PROGRAMS

Featured Events

Entrepreneur Series Summer 2017

Wednesdays, September, 5:30-8 pm | IVES

September 6 | Purple Marketing:
Art Mollengarden

September 13 | Online Marketing: Vishu Rao

September 20 | Money & Finance:
Tom Mazzaferro

These FREE workshops support entrepreneurs who are currently in the planning stages or ready to launch! To register call (203) 946-7431.

New Haven

Community Garden

Thursdays,
September 7,
14, 21 & 28
4 pm

FAIR HAVEN

Come help us care for our community garden! Watering, planting, building, and weeding. Whatever the garden needs!

Meet the Authors of New Haven Noir!

Thursday, September 7
6-7:30 pm | IVES

New Haven Noir editor Amy Bloom masterfully curates a star-studded cast of contributors to portray the city's underbelly. Celebrate the launch with Amy Bloom and readings from Alice Mattison, Jonathan Stone, Lisa Gray, David Rich, Sarah Strong,

Karen E. Olson, Jessica Speart and Hirsh Sawhney.

Historic Homes Rehabilitation Tax Credit Workshop

Saturday, September 9, 10:30-12:30 pm | IVES

Present by the New Haven Preservation Trust

Learn about one of the nation's most generous rehabilitation incentive programs for individual homeowners with Architectural Preservationist Alyssa Lozupone from the CT Historic Preservation Office. Register at info@nhpt.org or (203) 562-5919.

Meet an Elder Care & End-of-Life Doula

Wednesday, September 13, 6:30 pm | IVES

Learn about holistic care for the elderly and their families with Nathalie Bonafé, Ph.D., a Certified Care Consultant and Doula as well as a former biomedical research scientist in cancer studies and a volunteer with Seasons' Hospice and Palliative Care.

Windham Campbell Literature Prizes

2017 Festival | September 13-15

We are once again partnering with Windham Campbell! Search our catalog for "Windham-Campbell 2017"

and join us for these two sessions at NHFPL!

The Future of the Past:

Myth-making in the Modern World

Thursday, September 14, 12 pm | IVES

Professor of Classics Emily Greenwood talks with André Alexis, Marina Carr, and Carolyn Forché about how they approach myth in their work.

Ancestors: Where Do We Come From and Why Do We Care?

Friday, September 15, 12 pm | IVES

In conversation with novelist Min Jin Lee (YC '90), Erna Brodber, Ali Cobby Eckermann, Maya Jasanoff, and Ashleigh Young explore the various ways that writers discover their ancestors and bring them to life in their writing.

Author Book Signing and Release!

Hide and Seek: a Journey to Life by Sheree Baldwin-Mohammad

Saturday, September 16, 3-5 pm | STETSON

Sheree Baldwin-Mohammad's autobiography tells the story of overcoming low self-esteem, rape, domestic violence, and suicidal thoughts, combining narrative prose and poetry written over years. Her art will be on view, signed copies of the book will be available and a portion of the proceeds will benefit local domestic violence shelters.

Afternoon Book Club

Monday, September 18, 1 pm | MITCHELL

Join fellow readers for a discussion of the book, Dinner at the Homesick Restaurant by Anne Tyler. The Afternoon Book Club meets monthly – join anytime!

NEW HAVEN FREE PUBLIC LIBRARY

133 Elm Street New Haven CT 06510 203-946-8130 www.nhfpl.org

Featured Events (continued)

Community and Legal Interpreting Training
Monday, September 18, 4:30 pm | MITCHELL
Presented by Language Link, Inc.
 Job opportunity! Expanding your bilingual skills, and help others! FREE comprehensive workshop to train as a paid community or legal interpreter in hospitals, medical facilities, and legal settings. Fluency in English and any other language is necessary. Space is limited. To register please call (203)946-8117.

Start, Manage, & Grow Your Business with ReferenceUSA

Tuesday, September 19, 12-1 pm | IVES
 Tj Pridell of ReferenceUSA will host an interactive lead generation marketing seminar catering to the New Haven business community. To accommodate the needs of business owners, sales and marketing representatives and job seekers, NHFPL offers ReferenceUSA, an online provider of business and consumer research helping users create effective marketing plans, conduct essential competitive analysis, raise funds and locate people to expand and grow their business.

Peace Tree Planting

Saturday, September 23, 1 pm | FAIR HAVEN
 Join us to commemorate the International Day of Peace with a beautiful tree unveiling. The City of New Haven Peace Commission will have performances, refreshments, and information about efforts to build a culture of peace locally and around our world.

Author and Book Talk!
Within Walking Distance: Creating Livable Communities for All
With Local Author Philip Langdon
Thursday, September 28 6-7:30 pm | IVES

Journalist and urban critic Philip Langdon shows how people are creating, improving, and caring for walkable communities (like New Haven's East Rock!) where residents can walk or bike in just a few minutes to cafes, grocery stores, laundries, schools, parks, and more. Langdon, a New Havener for 34 years, spent time in 6 US communities that differ in size, history, wealth, diversity, and education, yet share these crucial traits: compactness; human scale; a mix of uses and activities; and people who devote energy to making their neighborhood better.

Film Screenings & Discussions

Friday Movie Matinees
Fridays in September, 2-4 pm
IVES
September 1 | *Steel Magnolias
September 8 | *The Right Stuff
(Starts at 1 pm; 3 hours)
September 15 | *Mud
September 22 | *Midnight Special
September 29 | *Fool for Love

In memory of a great actor and writer, September is Sam Shepard month at the NHFPL!

The Milky Way
Wednesday, September 6, 11 am | MITCHELL
Presented with the Jewish Community Center of Greater New Haven
 JCCGNH with NHFPL & Breastfeeding USA present as part of the Women Film Series this groundbreaking documentary about breastfeeding that will empower women to trust their bodies, their babies, and themselves as mothers. What Food Inc. did for the food industry, this film does for breastfeeding in America.

A Man Called Ove
Thursday, September 21 5:30 pm | FAIR HAVEN
 PG-13. Based on Fredrik Backman's bestselling novel, Ove is a grouchy Swedish widower mainly concerned with enforcing his block association's rules until a boisterous new family moves in and changes his perceptions.

Ives Gallery

Do Not Engage. Only Connect.
Work by JoAnne Wilcox
August 29-October 7 | IVES
Reception: Tuesday, September 26, 6-7:30 pm

Do Not Engage. Only Connect. is a wandering journey through the artist's attempts at understanding empathy and connection as her antidote for shame. A story of motherhood, reclaimed, no matter what.

