NEW HAVEN FREE PUBLIC LIBRARY

EXCITE the Future of NHFPL

What do you want to discover at your Library?

The New Haven Free Public Library is in the process of designing what kinds of programs, services and spaces we will provide now and into the future, and we need your input!

What do you care about?

What do you want and need help with?

What inspires you?

During September and October, we are hosting community conversations on different topics at all of our locations.

Please come and share your insights and aspirations with us in a 90-minute conversation with about 10 other community members, which we promise will be fast-paced and fun!
