Talk with the Docs!
Thursday, May 3, 6:30 p.m.

Join us for the first program in a series of bilingual health talks planned with our partners from Junta and Fair Haven Community Health Care. Tonight's topic: Depression. What have you always to know about depression? What treatments are available? How can you help others? Bring your questions! Activities for kids will take place during the session.

The Probate Court and You
Thursday, May 10, 6:00 p.m.

Come meet Probate Court Judge Clifton E. Graves, Jr. He'll tell you about the roles and responsibilities of the probate court in New Haven, and the services the court provides. Bring your questions about probate topics like estates,

Junta Immigration Workshop
Thursday, May 17, 5:00 p.m.

This month's topic is community policing in immigrant communities. Bilingual presentation and discussion.

Immigrants & Entrepreneurship
Thursday, May 24, 6:00 p.m.

Join us for the first program in a series of entrepreneurial talks planned with our partners from Collab. Immigrants have always been building incredible businesses upon arriving in the U.S. Our panel will discuss questions such as: How is being an immigrant make building a business in America different? How is this sometimes a barrier? An asset? Panelists include: Natalia Xiomara (Principal & Human Capital Strategist of Employment Resource Team, LLC ), Domingo Medina ( Founder of Peels & Wheels Composting ), and Reinaldo Cruz ( Permaculture Designer). Interested in starting a business, non-profit, or cooperative? Curious about innovation and the entrepreneurial spark? Then don't miss out!
