

September 2018

ADULT PROGRAMS

Featured Events

Community Garden

Thursdays, September 6, 13, 20 & 27
4 pm | FAIR HAVEN

Come help us care for our community garden supported by the New Haven Land Trust!

Whatever your age or ability we can use your help planting, watering, harvesting, and weeding. Thanks to you our garden will be even bigger this year—including fruit trees!

Historic Homes Rehabilitation Tax Credit Workshop

Saturday, September 8, 10:30-12:30 pm | IVES

Presented by the New Haven Preservation Trust. Learn the ins and outs of one of the nation's most generous rehabilitation incentive programs for individual homeowners with Architectural Preservationist Alyssa Lozupone from the State Historic Preservation Office, Department of Economic and Community Development. Please register by Thursday, September 6 to info@nhpt.org or (203) 562-5919.

Windham Campbell Literature Prizes 2018

We are once again proud to partner with the Windham Campbell Literature Prizes at Yale University! Search our catalog under "Windham-Campbell 2018" to find titles to borrow from this year's authors. Join us for these two sessions at Ives Main Library.

Epic Transformations

Thursday, September 13, 12-1 pm | IVES

Professor of Classics Emily Greenwood talks with Suzan-Lori Parks, Jennifer Makumbi, and Cathy Park Hong.

Memories, Secrets, and Lies: Writing on Family

Friday, September 14, 12-1 pm | IVES

Anthony Domestico talks with Olivia Laing, Jennifer Makumbi and Lorna Goodison.

{ WINDHAM
CAMPBELL
PRIZES }

Leeny Del Seamonds - ¡Vive el Cuento - Live the Story!

Thursday, September 13, 5:30 pm

FAIR HAVEN

Master bilingual storyteller Leeny Del Seamonds shares traditional Cuban and American tales. An exciting mix of music and story creates a fun family evening!

Author Talk with Alice Mattison

Monday, September,

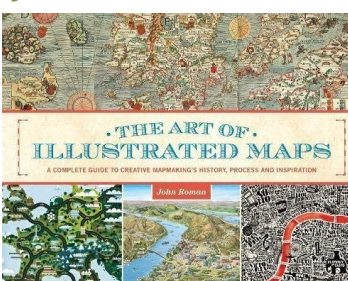

17, 6:30 pm

MITCHELL

Alice Mattison will read from her new book, Conscience, published by Pegasus Books in August 2018.

John Roman: The Art of Illustrated Maps

Saturday, September 22, 2-3 pm | IVES

Join author, educator and map illustrator John Roman for a discussion of his book, The Art of Illustrated Maps. Roman will show many of the illustrated maps he's created for advertising and publishing during his career, and reveal how and why the human mind instinctively accepts the artistic license invoked in "not-to-scale" maps. This presentation is sponsored by the Connecticut Map Society.

Democracy in Crisis: Conversations with New Haven Scholars

Tuesdays, 6 pm | IVES

Barack Obama & the Rise of Trumpism: Reflections on Recent US History Matthew Jacobson, Professor of American Studies, Yale University

September 25

How Fascism Works

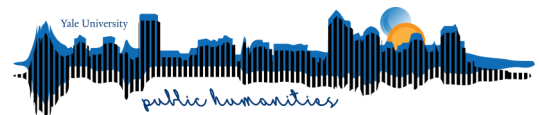

Jason Stanley, Professor of Philosophy, Yale University

October 30

Corporations and Democracies

Doug Rogers, Professor of Anthropology, Yale University

November 27

Film Screenings & Discussions

Friday Movie Matinees

Fridays in September, 2-4pm

IIVES

September 7 | Troy

September 14 | The Hobbit

September 21 | Noah

September 28 | Atonement

Classic Film Screening

Touch of Evil (Rated PG-13)

Saturday, September 29, 1:30 pm

FAIR HAVEN

When a car bomb explodes on the American side of the U.S./Mexico border, Mexican drug enforcement agent Miguel Vargas (Charlton Heston) begins his investigation, along with American police captain Hank Quinlan (Orson Welles). When Vargas begins to suspect that Quinlan and his shady partner, Menzies (Joseph Calleia), are planting evidence to frame an innocent man, his investigations into their possible corruption quickly put him and his new bride, Susie (Janet Leigh), in jeopardy.

Popcorn included!

Interference

Saturday, September 8, 2 pm | WILSON

Interference is a short story of activism. It speaks to the rewards, frustrations, success, shortcomings and the drive to continue the struggle for social justice in America. Yale graduate and film maker Julia Rosenheim interviews local activist, Barbara Fair and touches the surface of her life as an activist. An "Honorable Mention" Winner from this year's New Haven Documentary Film Festival.

Can't make it to one of our films? You have options!

- Hoopla: A unique digital entertainment / media service which allows you to borrow movies, videos, music and audiobooks straight from your browser, tablet, or smartphone!
- Kanopy allows you to stream a variety of feature films, documentaries and educational videos from Criterion Collection, First Run Features, PBS, Great Courses and more!

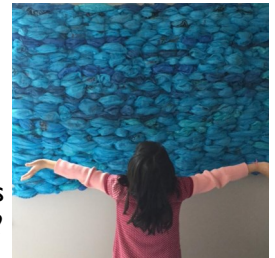

Ives Gallery

Remixed: A Kaleidoscope of Plastic Works by Marsha Borden

July 14 – September 7

IIVES GALLERY

In this exhibit, Marsha Borden exploits the sculptural qualities of the single-use plastic bag while examining its place in our culture. What do we consume? Can we ever really throw things "away?" Can waste be beautiful? Do we have an obligation to save the planet by cutting down on our use of plastic? Can we carry a plastic bag without feeling guilty? Is there a place for plastic?

The New Haven Free Public Library invites artists, curators, nonprofit organizations and students to exhibit their (2D) work at the Ives Gallery. Display your art and help the Library celebrate our creative community! Visit nhfpl.org/ives-gallery on September 15 for more information.

Ives Squared

Ives Squared is a new space to inspire and contribute to the vibrant civic and innovative culture of the New Haven community. Ives Squared includes a maker space, a collaborative working space, and a café all designed for active learning, networking, and creative exploration.

For more information, or to register for office hours and programs go to nhfpl.org/ives-squared.

