

September/October 2018 Programs for Kids

Jewish New Year Story Hour

Thursday September 6 at 4pm
Dip apples in honey, hear stories, and sing songs.
Sponsored by the PJ Library. For ages 0-5.

Slimy Slimy Slugs!

Wednesday September 12 at 4pm
What's grosser (or more awesome) than slugs? Come listen to some silly slug stories, learn weird slug facts, and make your own slimy slug slime!
For all ages.

Marble Run Mania

Wednesday September 26 at 4pm
Roll up your sleeves, rev up your imagination and build your own marble run! Choose from an assortment of building materials and work on the construction process as a team. The possibilities are limitless! For ages 5+.

KEVA Kids

Saturday September 29 at 3pm
Saturday October 20 at 3pm
Join Lauren Johnson from SCSU's Buley Maker Studio to build with Keva planks. Keva planks are small, wooden building blocks. Build an amazing structure during this open play program or try one of our engineering challenges. For ages 5+.

Fancy Hat Fashion Show

Wednesday October 10 at 4pm
Who can make the biggest, fanciest, goofiest hat? Join us for a storytime and a fancy hat craft. For all ages.

Chemistry Week—"Kitchen Messology"

Tuesday October 23 at 3:30pm

Professor Sepoc makes several indoor volcanoes, shows off "egg-speriments," and investigates two very different gases. At the end of the show, you'll want to make a shopping list to repeat these great kitchen chemistry and physics projects at home! For ages 5+.

Spooky Halloween Storytime

Wednesday October 24 at 4pm
Listen to spooky stories, make a spooky craft, and eat some spooky snacks. Remember to wear your costume! For all ages.
