Fair Haven Book Club

Monday, February 11, 2019 – 2:00 p.m.

Join the Book Club for an informal discussion of Lisa Wingate's best-selling historical novel "Before We Were Yours" The story, based on the real-life scandal of Georgia Tann, director of an adoption organization, kidnapped and sold poor children to wealthy families all over the country. Wingate tells their story writing parallel tales --- one set in 1939 and one in the present day. In the '30s Rill Foss and her family are living on a Mississippi River shantyboat. In the modern-day story, Avery Stafford lives in South Carolina where she has grown up in a privileged world. Copies available to check out. Light refreshments.

World Cinema: "Women on the Verge of a Nervous Breakdown"

Saturday, February 16, 2019 – 1:00 p.m.

When Pepa Marcos' lover Ivan suddenly leaves her without any explanation, she embarks on a strange journey to discover why. On the way she meets a variety of eccentric characters, including Ivan's son from a previous relationship (Antonio Banderas), his fiancée Marissa and a Shiite terrorist cell who have been secretly holding her best friend Candela hostage. Celebrated Spanish director Pedro Almodovar's wacky take on romantic comedy was nominated for an Academy Award for Best Foreign Film in 1989 and in recent years has become a popular musical. Rated R.
