

Ongoing

Fair Haven Neighborhood Community Management Team meeting

Thursday, April 4, 2019 – 6:00 p.m.

Each neighborhood in New Haven has a management team made up of your neighbors that meets monthly to identify and examine neighborhood news and issues. Hear reports and get information from first responders, elected officials representing Fair Haven, and concerned citizens. Have a voice in your community - join us on the first Thursday evening of each month.

Liberty Community Services

THURSDAYS – 5:00 & Saturday, April 6, 2019 —10:00 a.m.

Liberty provides supportive housing and services for our neighbors in need. A representative will be at our branch to assist you with questions and referrals about housing related services, support services, re-entry services, employment, clinical services, and health services. ¡Se Habla Espanol!

ESL Conversation Club

WEDNESDAYS - 4:00 p.m.

Practice speaking English in a casual group setting with our wonderful tutors. Families welcome!

One-on-One Tech Help

Not as familiar with computers, mobile devices, and the internet, as you'd like to be? Let us help! Learn anything from how to use a mouse, basic word processing, and file management, to setting up an e-mail account, and internet best practices.

Special Events

The Village: Life in New Haven's Little Italy film screening Saturday, April 6, 2019 – 12:00 p.m.

Join filmmaker Steve Hamm as we screen his documentary The Village. Learn how Italians came to New Haven and built a strong community in the Elm City—retaining some of their old values while embracing what it means to become Americans. The film captures the history and culture of the immigrant community as they settled in Wooster Square—and recounts how highway construction and “urban renewal” ended up tearing a tight-knit neighborhood. The film is 60 minutes. Afterward stay for refreshments and a discussion about immigration today and yesterday.

Fair Haven Book Club Monday, April 8, 2019 – 2:00 p.m.

Join the Book Club for an informal discussion of Ruth Hogan's novel “The Keeper of Lost Things”. Anthony Peardew, once a celebrated author of short stories, now in his twilight years, carelessly lost a keepsake from his beloved fiancée, Therese. Since then he has sought consolation by lovingly rescuing lost objects—the things others have dropped, misplaced, or accidentally left behind. Copies available to check out. Light refreshments.

Women's Self-Defense workshop Thursday, April 11, 2019 – 6:00 p.m.

Our friends at SWAN invite you to learn the basics of self-defense, The class will run about an hour long, and is open to all women. Jasmine, an experienced instructor, will show how to protect yourself and practice handling stressful situations. All physical ability levels are welcome as we focus on personalizing self defense techniques so that everyone can become confident in using them. Please wear comfortable shoes and clothing. Light snacks will be provided. Suggested donation is $10, but no one will be turned away for lack of funds.

Long Wharf Theatre: Storytelling & Social Justice Thursday, April 18, 2019 – 5:30 p.m.

How do the stories we tell impact justice in our city? Join Karen DuBois-Walton (Storytellers New Haven), Bill Graustein (William Casper Graustein Memorial Fund), and Reverend Kevin Ewing (New Haven Story Project) in conversation with Long Wharf Theatre's new Artistic Director Jacob Padrón as they explore the intersection of storytelling and social justice.