

LONG WHARF THEATRE & THE NEW HAVEN FREE PUBLIC LIBRARY

Join Long Wharf Theatre and the New Haven Free Public Library as we explore the ways stories help us make sense of the world.

Come eat, laugh, share, and celebrate with us!

ALL ARE WELCOME.

Tuesday April 2, 6PM | Wilson Branch Library

CRAFTING YOUR HOME

Everyone has a story. It is time to tell yours. The stories we tell of ourselves shape the lives we live, the relationships we form, and the people we become. Join us to write and workshop personal anecdotes, memoirs, and truths and to learn tools and techniques to take ownership over your story.

Saturday April 6, 3PM | Mitchell Branch Library

MAPPING HOME: TELLING YOUR NEW HAVEN STORY

Bring a photograph of New Haven and share the story of its past, and together we'll put the photographs on a map of New Haven to create a collage of our hometown.

Tuesday April 9, 6PM | Ives Main Branch

HISTORY SLAM: HISTORIES OF HOME

Listen to history out loud! Join NHFPL, LWT, and Yale Public Humanities reading and performing letters, poems, and quotes from our shared histories on the theme of home. Hear the words of Nelson Mandela, Mary Oliver, bell hooks, Nixon and more.

Wednesday April 17, 6PM | Stetson Branch Library

SPOKEN WORD AND SOCIAL JUSTICE

Join us for an evening of spoken word, poetry, and music ruminating on the theme of home.

Thursday April 18, 5:00PM | Fair Haven Branch Library

STORYTELLING AND SOCIAL JUSTICE

How do the stories we tell impact justice in our city? Join Karen DuBois-Walton (Storytellers New Haven), Bill Graustein (William Casper Graustein Memorial Fund), and Reverend Kevin Ewing (New Haven Story Project) in conversation with Long Wharf Theatre's new Artistic Director Jacob Padrón as they explore the intersection of storytelling and social justice.

Monday April 22, 6PM | Ives Main Library

TELL YOUR STORY: FINDING HOME

Join us for a city-wide story slam on the theme of "Finding Home." All are welcome to share their stories. Please sign up online in advance. Stories will be shared from the Young Leadership Program at Integrated Refugee and Immigrant Services (IRIS), "Survivors of Society Rising" at Connecticut Mental Health Center, Tower One Tower East residents, and you!

Thursday May 9, 6PM | Fair Haven Branch Library

MI HISTORIA: A BILINGUAL STORY SHARING EVENT!

Join us for a visual and oral story sharing event. All are welcome to share their stories. Please sign up online in advance. There will be English and Spanish translation present. Únete a nosotros para compartir tus historias en inglés y español.
