

Ongoing

Liberty Community Services
THURSDAYS – 5:00 + Saturday,
December 14, 2019

Liberty provides supportive housing and services for our neighbors in need. A representative will be at our branch to assist you with questions and referrals about housing related services, support services, re-entry services, employment, clinical services, and health services. ¡Se Habla Español!

Fair Haven Neighborhood
Community Management
Team Meeting-Thursday,
December 5, 2019 –
6:00 p.m.

Each neighborhood in New Haven has a management team made up of your neighbors that meets monthly to identify and examine neighborhood news and issues. Hear reports and get information from first responders, elected officials representing Fair Haven, and concerned citizens. Have a voice in your community - join us on the first Thursday evening of each month.

Fair Haven Book Club
Monday, December 9, 2019 –
2:00 p.m.

Join the Book Club for an informal discussion of The Day the World Came to Town. Jim DeFede's book chronicles 9/11 when the small town of Gander, Newfoundland received thousands of stranded airline passengers who had been headed to the US. Get details on the hospitality and goodwill shown to strangers during a dark time in history. This true story formed the basis of the recent musical production "Come from Away". Light refreshments.

World Cinema: "The Triplets of Belleville" -
Saturday, December 14,
2019 – 1:00 p.m.

Frenchwoman Madame Souza as she becomes involved in international intrigue when her grandson, Champion, a professional cyclist, is kidnapped and taken abroad. Joined by her faithful dog, Bruno, Souza embarks on a journey to find Champion, and stumbles across unlikely allies in the form of three sisters who are veterans of the vaudeville stage. Tracking down Champion's criminal captors, the quartet of old women use their wits to try and win the day. Sylvain Chomet's animated comedy was nominated for two Academy Awards. Rated PG-13. Free popcorn!

ESL Conversation Club-
WEDNESDAYS - 4:00 p.m.

Practice speaking English in a casual group setting with our wonderful tutors. Families welcome!

One-on-One Tech Help

Not as familiar with computers, mobile devices, and the internet, as you'd like to be? Let us help! Learn anything from how to use a mouse, basic word processing, and file management, to setting up an e-mail account, and internet best practices.

Special Events

City of New Haven Lead Poisoning Prevention
Education- Saturday, December 7, 2019 – 10:00 a.m.

Elevated levels of lead in your home or workplace can pose significant health risks. The New Haven Department of health will have info about lead and can answer your questions. Free giveaways to bring home!

Reconstruction documentary screening,
Part I Saturday, December 7, 2019 –
12:00 p.m.

The years after the end of the Civil War were a tense period in which Black Americans attempted to assert equal rights while the former Confederate states worked to reassert the pre-war racial caste system. Join us for the first part of acclaimed historian Henry Louis Gates PBS series about this turbulent time in U.S. History. Project Longevity of New Haven will lead a discussion after the screening. Light refreshments.

Junta's Know Your Rights workshop
Thursday, December 12, 2019 – 6:00 p.m.

Our friends at Junta for Progressive Action will explain what rights everyone has, how to exercise those rights, and what the best thing is to do in different situations you might find yourself in.

Home Care VNA High Blood Pressure screening
Tuesday, December 17, 2019 – 11:30 a.m.

Uncontrolled high blood pressure raises the risk for heart disease and stroke, which are leading causes of death in the United States. Home Care VNA will be performing high blood pressure screenings and helpful info. Walk-in, no appointment required. Learn more about Home Care's skilled nursing services and certified home health aide program. Attendees will receive an assortment of free personal health items too.