ADULT PROGRAMS

DAY OF THE DEAD SAWDUST CARPET CELEBRATION

Saturday, November 2nd 10:30-4 PM

Neighbors from the Hill and around New Haven will gather to honor the Mesoamerican tradition of tapetes: ground murals made from colored sawdust, flowers, grains, and seeds. Community members will make a large sawdust centerpiece on a table with the theme of bees and pollinators. Families will be invited to make their own tapetes using stencils and their own designs.
