

February 2020 Adult Programming

Ongoing

Fair Haven Neighborhood
Community Management Team
Meeting-Thursday, February 6 ,
2020– 6:00 p.m.

Each neighborhood in New Haven has a management team made up of your neighbors that meets monthly to identify and examine neighborhood news and issues. Hear reports and get information from first responders, elected officials representing Fair Haven, and concerned citizens. Have a voice in your community - Join us on the first Thursday evening of each month.

Fair Haven Book Club
Monday, February 10 2020
2:00 p.m.

Join the Book Club for an informal discussion of Born a Crime, comedian Trevor Noah's account of his childhood in South Africa under the apartheid government and the first few years of democratic rule by the nation's black majority. Born in 1984 to a Xhosa mother and a white Swiss expatriate father, Noah is not merely an anomaly in apartheid South Africa; his existence is actually illegal because the regime outlawed relationships between people of different races. Light refreshments.

ESOL Conversation Club-
WEDNESDAYS - 4:00 p.m.

Practice speaking English in a casual group setting with our wonderful tutors. Families welcome.

One-on-One Tech Help

Not as familiar with computers, mobile devices, and the internet, as you'd like to be? Let us help! Learn anything from how to use a mouse, basic word processing, and file management, to setting up an e-mail account, and internet best practices.

Special Events

Reconstruction documentary screening,
Parts 3&4—Saturday, February 8, 2020 --
12:00 p.m.

The years after the end of the Civil War were a tense period in which Black Americans attempted to assert equal rights while the former Confederate states worked to reassert the pre-war racial caste system. Join us for the final parts of acclaimed historian Henry Louis Gates PBS series about this turbulent time in U.S. History. Project Longevity of New Haven will lead a discussion after the screening. Light refreshments.

Maya's Angelou's Last Call, Saturday,
February 15, 2020—12:00 p.m.

Join us when Mike Howard discusses his interview with Maya Angelou, the last interview she gave before she passed away in 2014, on the Mike Nice Show. See the video of their talk and learn how she inspired him and so many others throughout her life. All ages welcome. For more information call (860) 538-5526.

Junta's Know Your Rights workshop
Thursday, February 20, 2020– 6:00 p.m.

Our friends at Junta for Progressive Action will explain what rights everyone has, how to exercise those rights, and what the best thing is to do in different situations you might find yourself in.

Latino Health and Wellness Fair
Saturday, February 22, 2020 12:00 p.m.—
4:00 p.m.

Together we heal. Come to learn about available resources, Find support. Make connections.

Community Census training
Saturday, February 29, 2020—1:30 p.m.

The 2020 U.S. Census is extremely important for our city. Statistics generated from it are relied on by businesses and strategic planners. An accurate count also guides the distribution of federal funding. Learn more about the effort to make sure all residents are counted and in the correct location.

