Application for October 2020– June 2021

---

Please read the NHFPL: Creative-In-Residence October 2020– June 2021 Guidelines before completing the application.

1) Contact Information

Name:

Address:

Phone:

Email:

Website:

Linked In:

2) Bio & Relevant Experience

Please provide a bio and any relevant experience you have had which makes you qualified for the Creative-In-Residence (CIR) position. You are encouraged to include information on your familiarity with New Haven maker resources, your experience as a maker and creative, and/or past involvement in the maker movement, mentorship, or education.

3) Proposed Programs

As part of your in-residence, you are required to run 3-4 programs per month. These can take the form of workshops, talks, lectures, classes, video training, etc. Programs can also include outside speakers. Please provide us an outline of the three programs you intend to run for the library. The outline should include a title for each program, a description, the demographic you are targeting, and what users will take away from the program

4) Incorporation of Ives Squared Resources

The Ives Squared space includes several creative/technological resources in the various sections (the Tinker Lab, the Switchboard, the Exchange and the café). Please provide us background on your experience/familiarity with these or similar resources and your thoughts on the approaches you would take to incorporate these resources in the programs that you develop. Familiarity/experience with some of this equipment is preferred and the planned activities should motivate use of the resources.

5) Communications/Promotion

The Ives Squared space and the CIR position was recently launched. What networking or social resources could you provide to help increase the awareness and activation of the space.

6) Goals

Please tell us what you hope to accomplish by participating in the Creative-In-Residence program as well as how you intend to measure your progress towards it.

7) Availability

The Creative-In-Residence program is five-month commitment from October 2020– June 2021. Please indicate below if there are limitations on your availability:

8) How did you hear about the Creative-In-Residence? (e.g., NHFPL website, NHFPL Happenings Newsletter Email, NHFPL social media, Greater New Haven Chamber of Commerce, Connecticut Center for Arts and Technology, SCORE, Small Business Association, Agora, District, etc.)

9) Attachments

- Resume or CV
- If applying with more than one organizer (i.e. partners, group of professionals or startups), please include a resume for each person.
- Contact information for at least three professional references

All submissions should be emailed to Gina Bingham, Manager of Ives Squared: gbingham@nhfpl.org with subject line “CIR Application.”
